An Intentional Dialogue

Wilsonville Alliance for Inclusive Community & Oregon Humanities Conversation Project

Facilitator Chisao Hata

These are critical times that challenge us to be bigger and bolder in defining ourselves and our relations to others. We each have an arch of understanding based on our identity, legacy experiences and dreams/goals. Come together and connect with intentionality in this facilitated dialogue.

Chisao Hata is a performer, educator, and social justice activist skilled at building relationships between communities of color. Through art and community engagement, her work uplifts histories and omitted stories about identity, culture, social action and legacies. Her facilitation builds community inclusivity needed to surmount cultural divisions
